

ABOUT FSG AUSTRALIA

FSG Australia is a not-for-profit community organisation, passionately committed at all levels to innovation in human service delivery. We are proactive, respectful and secular in our approach to making a positive difference for people whose lives are affected by disability, mental illness, aged-related frailty, dementia, child safety issues and caring roles.

OUR COMMITMENT

Our commitment is to ensure that FSG Australia centres/projects are well resourced and supported, and share common core values and principles. Our further commitment is to ensure that all services are delivered within a strong quality and continuous improvement framework.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

FSG Australia affirms and reflects the general principles set out in the legislation under which we operate.

OUR APPROACH

FSG Australia respects self-determination and takes the stance that every human being is capable of growth and change. Even in the very adverse conditions experienced by some people, we believe that the core values of unconditional positive regard, empathetic understanding and congruence must drive intervention strategies.

WHY IS FSG AUSTRALIA THE AGENCY OF CHOICE?

- FSGA is a Registered Training Organization (RTO) offering Certificate III in disability Studies, as well as a unique Mentoring Program for people new to the industry, who do not yet have qualifications.
- FSGA employees have access to on-going relevant raining opportunities to enhance their professional knowledge and skills.
- All employees of FSG Australia work within the principles of 'The Art of Gentle Teaching'.

This philosophy helps us to understand that people respond or react to the way they are treated. With this understanding we can then look to ourselves, our processes and our environment as reasons behind why people may react adversely, and modify our approach to assist people to move ahead.
